

PNASD 2023 Scholarship Recipient Biographies

Mariecand Joan David,
DNPc, MSN, RN, PCCNK, RN-BC, HC
University of Phoenix,
Doctoral Program
Expected Graduation: December 2024

MJ currently works at UCSD as a Clinical Navigator and holds a master's degree in nursing administration. She believes that working towards a more diverse nursing workforce can improve patient outcomes and ensure that all patients receive high-quality, culturally competent care.

Kristin Capunpun
Mira Costa College, ADN Program
Expected Graduation: May 2024

Kristin is impressive at time management, problem-solving, being a team player, empathetic, and adaptive to different situations that arise. She believes a diverse workforce can be used as a blueprint for how to dismantle healthcare barriers and inequities.

Krisha Almazan
National University, BSN Program
Expected Graduation: July 2023

Krisha is a nursing assistant at Sharp HealthCare and Scripps Health. She is currently the secretary of the National University's Student Nurses Association. She is interested in becoming an L&D

Adam Brotman
Southwestern College, ADN Program
Expected Graduation: May 2024

Adam holds a Bachelor of Science in Business from SDSU. Every Friday Adam can be found at UCSD Hillcrest Hospital volunteering in the Critical Care Unit and Wednesdays doing integrative holistic therapy with the patient population at Sharp Chula Vista Hospital. He is well-spoken and advocates and gives a voice to students in his class.